

Orientation for New Pretrial Executives

Who Should Attend

Pretrial release agency professionals with decision-making responsibilities and who have a minimum of one year of experience in a high-level management position.

Description

This 40-hour program is designed to enhance the leadership capacity of, and promote sound pretrial release practices for, pretrial professionals with decision-making responsibilities. The program incorporates the National Association of Pretrial Service Agencies (NAPSA) Pretrial Release Standards with cutting-edge organizational and leadership strategies.

The program will provide participants with a collaborative learning environment for addressing the practical challenges facing pretrial release executives every day. In addition, the program will focus on enhancing participants' knowledge and skills, strengthening networking among attendees and other pretrial professionals, and creating a learning and problem solving environment through peer interaction and discussion between faculty and participants.

Application Requirements

Applicants must submit Form A (see attached) to the National Institute of Corrections, 791 Chambers Road, Aurora, CO 80011; fax 303-365-4457. To receive full consideration, each item on both sides of the application must be completed.

Please allow 5 to 7 business days for mailing applications.
